All rights reserved.

No part of this Constitution may be reproduced, stored, transmitted, or distributed in any form or by any means without the written permission of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission, except for brief quotations used for teaching, review, or educational purposes.

This Constitution shall serve as the supreme governing document of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission, subject always to the authority of the Holy Scriptures.

DEDICATION

This Constitution is humbly dedicated to the glory of Almighty God, the Creator of heaven and earth.

It is dedicated to our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, the only Founder, Owner, Head, and Chief Shepherd of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission.

We acknowledge that this Mission belongs to Christ alone. It is not founded upon the wisdom of men, personal ambition, family inheritance, or human tradition, but upon the eternal foundation of Jesus Christ and His Holy Word.

May every generation that serves under this Constitution remain faithful to the Holy Scriptures, obedient to the Holy Spirit, uncompromising in the Gospel, steadfast in holiness, and devoted to the advancement of the Kingdom of God until the glorious appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ.

To Him alone be all glory, honour, dominion, and praise forever.

Amen.

THE CARETAKER'S CHARGE

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission belongs to Jesus Christ alone.

No leader, minister, trustee, member, or future generation shall ever regard this Mission as personal property or family inheritance.

Every office within this Mission is a sacred trust committed by God to faithful caretakers.

Leadership within this Mission is not ownership but stewardship.

Every caretaker shall therefore serve with humility, holiness, integrity, accountability, and unwavering obedience to the Holy Scriptures.

The success of a caretaker shall not be measured by popularity, wealth, or influence, but by faithfulness to Jesus Christ.

"Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful."

— 1 Corinthians 4:2 (KJV)

PREAMBLE

We, the members of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission (VOTREM), acknowledging Almighty God as the Creator of all things, Jesus Christ as the only Founder, Owner, and Head of this Mission, and the Holy Spirit as our Divine Guide and Helper, do hereby establish this Constitution.

We affirm that the Mission exists to proclaim the uncompromised and undiluted Word of God, to preach Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, to restore the fallen, to disciple believers, to raise faithful voices for Christ, to uphold holiness, and to advance the Kingdom of God among all nations.

We further declare that this Constitution is established to preserve the biblical identity, doctrine, governance, discipline, stewardship, and mission of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission for present and future generations.

Trusting wholly in the grace of God and the leading of the Holy Spirit, we adopt this Constitution as the governing document of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission.

ARTICLE I

NAME, IDENTITY, LEGAL STATUS, PURPOSE, AND FOUNDATIONAL CHARACTER

Section 1.1 – Official Name

The official name of this Mission shall be:

VOICE ON THE ROCK EVANGELICAL MISSION

Hereinafter referred to as VOTREM.

The word "Mission" shall remain the official legal designation of the organization in accordance with its registration and shall be used in all legal, administrative, ministerial, and public documents, instead of Movement.

Section 1.2 – Divine Ownership

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission is not the creation, possession, or inheritance of any human being.

Jesus Christ alone is the Founder, Owner, Builder, Head, and Chief Shepherd of this Mission.

The Mission therefore acknowledges His absolute Lordship in every matter concerning its doctrine, worship, leadership, administration, discipline, and future.

"Upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

(Matthew 16:18 KJV)

No human authority shall supersede the authority of Christ over this Mission.

Section 1.3 – The Caretaker Principle

The Mission recognizes that every office entrusted to any individual is an office of stewardship.

No leader shall ever be regarded as the owner of the Mission.

The Lead Evangelist, Trustees, Ministers, Elders, Deacons, Workers, and every officer shall serve only as caretakers entrusted with responsibilities under the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

Every caretaker shall remember that he or she shall one day give account to God for every responsibility entrusted to them.

Leadership within Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission is therefore a sacred stewardship and never personal ownership.

Section 1.4 – Identity of the Mission

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission is an evangelical Christian Mission established for the purpose of proclaiming Jesus Christ and building lives upon the eternal foundation of His Word.

The Mission exists to win souls, shine in darkness, preserve the purity of the Gospel, promote holy living, disciple believers, restore the fallen, equip labourers for ministry, and prepare people for the glorious return of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Mission shall remain committed to the uncompromised, undiluted, and life-transforming Word of God.

Section 1.5 – Motto

The official motto of the Mission shall be:

"Proclaiming Christ, Building lives."

This motto expresses the Mission's unwavering commitment to Jesus Christ as the Rock and to faithfully proclaiming His Word without compromise.

Section 1.6 – Vision Statement

The vision of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission is:

To establish, beyond religious traditions and human philosophies, a people whose lives, voices, and ministries faithfully proclaim the pure Word, purpose, and character of Jesus Christ, standing upon Him alone as the Eternal Rock.

The Mission believes that every generation requires faithful witnesses whom God raises to preserve His truth.

Section 1.7 – Mission Statement

The Mission exists:

- To preach the uncompromised and undiluted Gospel of Jesus Christ.
- To lead sinners to genuine repentance and faith.
- To restore backsliders through the grace of God.
- To disciple believers into spiritual maturity.
- To raise faithful voices and labourers for Christ.
- To plant churches and strengthen the Body of Christ.
- To demonstrate the love of Christ through practical acts of compassion.

- To prepare believers for the Second Coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Section 1.8 – Core Identity

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission is founded upon the conviction that the Gospel is both proclaimed and lived.

Accordingly, the Mission shall always uphold:

- The Lordship of Jesus Christ.
 - The authority of the Holy Scriptures.
 - The leadership of the Holy Spirit.
 - The necessity of holiness.
 - The ministry of reconciliation.
 - Faithful discipleship.
 - Evangelistic outreach.
 - Christian service motivated by love.

Section 1.9 – Ministry Philosophy

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission recognizes every sincere believer as a potential servant of Jesus Christ.

The Mission therefore commits itself to identifying, nurturing, discipling, training, mentoring, and releasing believers into the work to which God has called them.

The Mission shall function as a spiritual training community where lives are transformed by the Word of God and the Holy Spirit, preparing faithful servants for every good work.

Section 1.10 – The Raising of Voices

The Mission believes that God raises faithful witnesses in every generation.

Therefore, one of the principal assignments of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall be to discover, encourage, equip, and release men and women whose voices shall faithfully proclaim Jesus Christ.

The Mission exists not to build personalities, but to raise faithful servants whose lives glorify God.

Section 1.11 – Equality Before God

The Mission affirms that all people are created in the image of God and are equal in dignity before Him.

Membership, ministry opportunities, and Christian fellowship shall not be denied on the basis of tribe, ethnicity, nationality, language, social class, or economic status.

Appointments to leadership shall be based upon biblical qualifications, spiritual maturity, godly character, and the calling of God.

Section 1.12 – Dependence Upon God

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission acknowledges its complete dependence upon Almighty God.

The Mission shall continually seek the direction of the Holy Spirit through prayer, the Holy Scriptures, and humble obedience.

No programme, policy, ambition, financial opportunity, or human wisdom shall replace dependence upon God.

Closing Declaration

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission solemnly declares that Jesus Christ alone shall forever remain its Foundation, Owner, Builder, and Head.

Every generation shall receive this Mission as a sacred trust, faithfully preserving its biblical foundation and handing it to the next generation without compromising the Gospel once delivered to the saints.

"For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ."

1 Corinthians 3:11 (KJV)

ARTICLE II

THE ETERNAL FOUNDATIONS OF THE MISSION

Section 2.1 – The Eternal Foundation

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission is permanently founded upon Jesus Christ, the Son of the living God.

No generation, leader, trustee, minister, council, assembly, or future amendment shall establish another spiritual foundation for this Mission.

The Mission acknowledges that Christ alone is its Rock, Redeemer, Lord, and everlasting Foundation.

"For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ."

(1 Corinthians 3:11 KJV)

Section 2.2 – The Supreme Authority of the Holy Scriptures

The Holy Bible, consisting of the sixty-six (66) books of the Old and New Testaments, is the inspired, infallible, sufficient, and authoritative Word of God.

The Scriptures shall remain the supreme authority governing every doctrine, policy, ministry, discipline, worship, appointment, decision, and activity of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission.

No prophecy, dream, vision, tradition, revelation, philosophy, culture, or human opinion shall possess authority equal to or greater than the written Word of God.

Every teaching within the Mission shall be examined by the Holy Scriptures.

Section 2.3 – The Lordship of Jesus Christ

Jesus Christ alone is:

- The Founder of the Mission.
- The Owner of the Mission.
- The Builder of the Mission.
- The Head of the Mission.
- The Chief Shepherd of the Mission.
- The Final Judge of the Mission.

Every ministry shall therefore exist to glorify Him.

Every leader shall remain under His authority.

Every decision shall honour His Word.

Section 2.4 – The Ministry of the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the Divine Administrator of God's present work upon the earth.

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall continually depend upon His guidance in worship, evangelism, leadership, discipline, missions, and spiritual growth.

The Mission recognizes that without the Holy Spirit no lasting spiritual work can be accomplished.

Therefore, prayer shall precede every major decision of the Mission.

Section 2.5 – The Gospel

The Mission shall faithfully proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ as delivered in the Holy Scriptures.

The Gospel includes:

- The holiness of God.
- The sinfulness of mankind.
- Repentance.
- Salvation through Jesus Christ alone.

- His death upon the Cross.
- His bodily resurrection.
- His ascension.
- His present intercession.
- His visible Second Coming.
- Eternal judgment.
- Eternal life.

This Gospel shall never be altered, commercialized, diluted, modernized beyond Scripture, or exchanged for philosophies that contradict the Word of God.

Section 2.6 – Holiness

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission believes that holiness is the natural life of everyone who bears the image of God through Jesus Christ.

Holiness is not merely outward appearance but inward transformation demonstrated through obedience to God.

Every member and minister shall pursue holiness through the grace of God and the sanctifying work of the Holy Spirit.

"Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity."

(2 Timothy 2:19 KJV)

Section 2.7 – The Purpose of the Mission

The Mission exists to:

- Preach the uncompromised and undiluted Word of God.
- Bring sinners to Jesus Christ.
- Restore those who have fallen.
- Build mature disciples.
- Raise faithful voices for Christ.
- Train servants for the Kingdom of God.
- Plant churches where God leads.
- Demonstrate Christian love through practical ministry.
- Prepare believers for the glorious return of Jesus Christ.

Every department, ministry, programme, and institution established by the Mission shall support these purposes.

Section 2.8 – Leadership as Stewardship

Leadership within Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission is stewardship.

No office shall ever become:

- Personal ownership.
- Family inheritance.
- Political position.
- Financial opportunity.
- Means of self-exaltation.

Every leader shall remember that he or she serves as a caretaker entrusted with God's work.

Section 2.9 – Raising Faithful Voices

The Mission believes that God continues to call men and women into His service.

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission therefore commits itself to identifying, discipling, mentoring, training, and releasing faithful labourers into every area of Christian ministry.

The Mission shall seek not merely to gather followers but to raise servants who faithfully proclaim Christ.

Section 2.10 – Truth and Mercy

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall uphold both the holiness of God and the mercy of God.

The Mission shall never lower God's standard in order to gain acceptance.

Likewise, the Mission shall never abandon sincere people who desire restoration through genuine repentance.

Therefore, every disciplinary action shall seek both the honour of Christ and the restoration of the repentant wherever biblically possible.

Section 2.11 – Dependence Upon Prayer

Prayer shall remain the foundation of every ministry, programme, appointment, discipline, financial decision, missionary activity, and strategic direction of the Mission.

The Mission believes that human wisdom alone cannot accomplish spiritual work.

Therefore, every major decision shall be committed to prayer before implementation.

Section 2.12 – The Eternal Principles of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission

The following principles shall remain permanent and shall never be altered by constitutional amendment, administrative policy, leadership succession, cultural pressure, or majority vote:

1. Jesus Christ alone is the Founder, Owner, Builder, and Head of the Mission.
 2. The Holy Scriptures are the supreme authority in every matter.
 3. Salvation is found only through Jesus Christ.
 4. The Gospel shall remain uncompromised and undiluted.
 5. The Mission shall continually depend upon the Holy Spirit.
 6. Holiness shall remain the expected lifestyle of every believer.
 7. Leadership is stewardship and never ownership.
 8. The Mission exists to glorify God rather than men.
 9. The Mission shall continually raise faithful labourers for Christ.
 10. Every generation shall faithfully preserve these foundations for the generations that follow.

Closing Declaration

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission recognizes that generations may change, methods may develop, and ministries may expand; however, the eternal truth of Jesus Christ and His Holy Word shall never change.

Therefore, the Mission solemnly commits itself to stand upon Christ alone, proclaim His voice without compromise, and faithfully preserve these eternal foundations until the appearing of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

"Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever."

(Hebrews 13:8 KJV)

ARTICLE III

STATEMENT OF FAITH

Section 3.1 – The Holy Scriptures

We believe that the Holy Bible, consisting of the sixty-six (66) books of the Old and New Testaments, is the inspired, infallible, inerrant, and authoritative Word of God.

Holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit. Therefore, the Scriptures are God's complete and trustworthy revelation concerning salvation, faith, doctrine, holy living, and the will of God for mankind.

The Holy Scriptures shall remain the supreme authority for every doctrine, decision, practice, and ministry of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission.

No human philosophy, tradition, culture, vision, prophecy, or personal revelation shall supersede the authority of the written Word of God.

"All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness."

(2 Timothy 3:16–17 KJV)

Section 3.2 – The One True God

We believe that there is one eternal and living God, the Creator of heaven and earth.

He alone is worthy of worship, honour, glory, and obedience.

God is perfect in holiness, righteousness, wisdom, justice, mercy, truth, and love.

He exists eternally as:

- God the Father,
- God the Son,
- God the Holy Spirit.

These Three are one God, equal in divine nature, power, and glory.

Section 3.3 – God the Father

We believe in God the Father Almighty.

He is the Creator and Sustainer of all things.

He governs all creation according to His perfect wisdom and sovereign will.

He loved the world and sent His only begotten Son for the salvation of mankind.

The Father is faithful to His promises and accomplishes all His holy purposes.

Section 3.4 – Jesus Christ

We believe that Jesus Christ is the eternal Son of God.

He was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, lived a sinless life, revealed the Father perfectly, performed mighty works, preached the Kingdom of God, died upon the Cross as the perfect sacrifice for our sins, rose bodily from the dead on the third day, ascended into heaven, and now sits at the right hand of God the Father where He continually intercedes for His people.

We believe that Jesus Christ alone is the Saviour of mankind.

There is no other name under heaven by which anyone may be saved.

We further believe that He shall visibly return in power and great glory to judge the living and the dead and to establish His everlasting Kingdom.

Section 3.5 – The Holy Spirit

We believe that the Holy Spirit is God.

He convicts the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment.

He regenerates those who believe in Christ, indwells every true believer, sanctifies, teaches, comforts, guides, equips, and empowers believers for holy living and effective ministry.

The Holy Spirit glorifies Jesus Christ and never contradicts the Holy Scriptures.

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall continually depend upon His leadership in every aspect of ministry.

Section 3.6 – Creation

We believe that God created the heavens, the earth, and all things visible and invisible according to His sovereign will.

Human beings were created in the image and likeness of God to know Him, worship Him, and glorify Him.

Every human life therefore possesses inherent dignity and value before God.

Section 3.7 – The Fall of Man

We believe that through Adam's disobedience, sin entered the world, bringing spiritual separation from God and death upon all mankind.

As a result, every person stands in need of God's saving grace through Jesus Christ.

Human effort, morality, religion, or good works alone cannot remove sin.

Section 3.8 – Salvation

We believe that salvation is the gracious gift of God received through repentance and faith in Jesus Christ alone.

Salvation includes:

- Forgiveness of sins.
- Justification.
- Regeneration.

- Adoption into the family of God.
- Sanctification.
- The hope of eternal life.

We affirm that genuine salvation produces a transformed life and growing obedience to God.

Faith that refuses the transforming work of God does not reflect the fullness of biblical discipleship.

Section 3.9 – Holiness and Christian Living

We believe that every believer is called to live a life of holiness.

Holiness is the evidence of a life surrendered to God and transformed by His grace.

Believers are called to love God, love one another, pursue righteousness, reject sin, and walk in obedience to the Holy Spirit.

The Mission rejects the idea that grace permits careless or sinful living.

Rather, grace teaches believers to deny ungodliness and to live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world.

Section 3.10 – The Church

We believe that the Church is the Body of Christ, composed of all who have truly trusted in Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour.

Jesus Christ alone is the Head of the Church.

The purpose of the Church is:

- To worship God.
 - To proclaim the Gospel.
 - To disciple believers.
 - To preserve sound doctrine.
 - To demonstrate the love of Christ.
 - To prepare believers for His return.

Section 3.11 – The Ordinances

We believe that our Lord Jesus Christ instituted two ordinances for His Church:

- Water Baptism for believers as a public confession of faith.
- The Lord's Supper as a remembrance of His sacrificial death until He comes again.

These ordinances do not save but are acts of obedience to Christ.

Section 3.12 – The Second Coming of Christ

We believe that Jesus Christ shall personally, visibly, and gloriously return.

His return shall bring the fulfillment of God's eternal purposes, the resurrection of the dead, the final judgment, and the establishment of His everlasting Kingdom.

Therefore, believers should live in continual readiness, faithfulness, and hope.

Section 3.13 – Resurrection and Eternal Judgment

We believe in the bodily resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.

Those who belong to Christ shall inherit everlasting life in His presence.

Those who reject God's salvation shall face eternal judgment according to His righteous justice.

Section 3.14 – The Mission's Confession

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission joyfully confesses:

- Jesus Christ alone is Lord.
- The Holy Scriptures alone are our final authority.
- The Holy Spirit is our Divine Helper.
- Salvation is through Christ alone.
- Holiness is the calling of every believer.
- The Gospel shall never be compromised.
- The Church exists for the glory of God and the salvation of mankind.

These truths shall remain the doctrinal foundation of the Mission for every generation.

Closing Declaration

We receive these doctrines not as human inventions but as the faithful teaching of the Holy Scriptures.

Every minister, leader, worker, and member of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall uphold, defend, teach, and faithfully live according to this Statement of Faith.

"Earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints."

(Jude 3 KJV)

ARTICLE IV

GOVERNMENT, LEADERSHIP, AND ADMINISTRATION

Section 4.1 – The Headship of Christ

Jesus Christ alone is the supreme Head of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission.

Every office, authority, programme, ministry, department, and decision within the Mission shall remain subject to His Lordship and the authority of the Holy Scriptures.

No individual or governing body shall possess authority equal to or greater than that of Jesus Christ.

"And he is the head of the body, the church."

(Colossians 1:18 KJV)

Section 4.2 – Principle of Stewardship

The Mission affirms that leadership is a sacred stewardship entrusted by God.

No office within Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall be regarded as personal property, family inheritance, or permanent possession.

Every leader serves as a caretaker under Christ and shall one day give account to God for his or her stewardship.

Leadership shall therefore be exercised with humility, integrity, faithfulness, and love.

Section 4.3 – The Government of the Mission

The Mission shall be governed through biblical leadership under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

The governing structure shall include:

- The Lead Evangelist.
- The Board of Trustees.
- The Leadership Council.
- Regional and Local Church Leadership.
- Other committees or offices established in accordance with this Constitution.

All governing bodies shall work together in unity, recognizing Jesus Christ as the final authority.

Section 4.4 – The Lead Evangelist

The Lead Evangelist shall serve as the principal spiritual leader and caretaker of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission.

The office of the Lead Evangelist is a sacred trust and not a position of personal ownership.

The responsibilities of the Lead Evangelist shall include:

- Preserving the vision and biblical identity of the Mission.
- Providing spiritual leadership.
- Teaching and defending sound doctrine.
- Leading evangelistic outreach.
- Encouraging prayer and holiness.

- Raising and mentoring faithful leaders.
- Working harmoniously with the Board of Trustees and the Leadership Council.
- Guarding the Mission against false doctrine and practices contrary to Scripture.

The Lead Evangelist shall lead by example, demonstrating humility, integrity, and dependence upon God.

Section 4.5 – The Board of Trustees

The Board of Trustees shall serve as the legal and administrative custodians of the Mission.

The Board shall:

- Protect the legal interests of the Mission.
- Safeguard Mission property and assets.
- Ensure compliance with applicable laws.
- Approve major administrative and financial matters.
- Preserve the constitutional integrity of the Mission.

The Board shall exercise its responsibilities prayerfully, transparently, and in harmony with the spiritual vision of the Mission.

The Board shall never alter or compromise the doctrinal foundation established by this Constitution.

Section 4.6 – Leadership Council

The Leadership Council shall consist of ministers and leaders appointed according to this Constitution.

The Council shall advise, encourage, and assist in the spiritual growth, administration, and expansion of the Mission.

Major matters affecting the Mission shall be discussed prayerfully and with mutual respect.

Every member of the Council shall seek the mind of Christ rather than personal advantage.

Section 4.7 – Appointment of Leaders

Appointments to leadership shall be based upon:

- God's calling.
- Biblical qualifications.
- Godly character.
- Spiritual maturity.
- Faithfulness in service.
- Sound doctrine.
- Humility and teachability.

Popularity, wealth, family relationship, tribe, or social status shall never qualify a person for leadership.

Section 4.8 – Accountability

Every leader within Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission is accountable first to God and also to the Mission according to this Constitution.

Leaders shall welcome biblical correction, maintain transparency, and serve with humility.

Where concerns arise regarding a leader's conduct, such matters shall be addressed prayerfully and according to biblical principles.

No office shall place a person above correction or accountability.

Section 4.9 – Succession of Leadership

Because Jesus Christ alone is the Founder and Owner of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission, no office shall automatically pass through inheritance, family relationship, or personal appointment.

When the office of the Lead Evangelist becomes vacant through death, resignation, incapacity, or any other lawful reason, the Board of Trustees and Leadership Council shall seek the will of God through prayer, fasting, and careful discernment.

The person recognized as the next Lead Evangelist shall be one whom God has prepared, who meets the biblical qualifications for leadership, and whose calling is confirmed according to the procedures of the Mission.

The Mission acknowledges that the choice of a successor ultimately belongs to God.

Section 4.10 – Decision-Making

The Mission shall conduct its affairs in a spirit of prayer, unity, wisdom, and mutual submission.

Important decisions shall not be made hastily but shall be prayerfully considered in the light of Scripture and the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Where differences arise, leaders shall seek peace, truth, and the glory of God above personal opinion.

Section 4.11 – Transparency and Integrity

Every leader shall conduct the affairs of the Mission honestly and faithfully.

The Mission rejects corruption, favoritism, manipulation, and every form of abuse of authority.

Integrity shall be regarded as an essential qualification for leadership.

Section 4.12 – Leadership Covenant

Every leader of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall affirm the following:

"I acknowledge Jesus Christ as the only Founder, Owner, and Head of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission. I receive this office as a sacred stewardship and not as personal ownership. I will faithfully uphold the Holy Scriptures, preserve the vision of the Mission, walk in humility and holiness, protect the unity of the Church, and serve God's people with integrity, relying upon the grace of God and the guidance of the Holy Spirit."

Closing Declaration

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission believes that true leadership is measured not by position or authority, but by faithful service to Jesus Christ.

Every leader shall remember that he or she is first a servant of God before becoming a leader among His people.

"Whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister."

(Matthew 20:26 KJV)

ARTICLE V

MEMBERSHIP, DISCIPLESHIP, AND MINISTERIAL DEVELOPMENT

Section 5.1 – Membership

Membership in Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall be open to every person who has sincerely confessed Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour and willingly desires to follow Him according to the Holy Scriptures.

The Mission welcomes people from every tribe, nation, language, culture, and social background, affirming that all are one in Christ Jesus.

Membership shall not be granted merely by attendance, but by a sincere commitment to Christ, the Mission's Statement of Faith, and a willingness to grow in biblical discipleship.

Section 5.2 – Reception of Members

Every person seeking membership shall be received with Christian love and shall undergo a period of orientation and discipleship.

This period shall introduce members to:

- The Gospel of Jesus Christ.
- The Statement of Faith.
- The Vision and Mission of VOTREM.
- Christian character and holiness.
- The disciplines of prayer, Bible study, worship, and evangelism.

- The responsibilities of Christian fellowship.

No person shall be appointed to leadership until he or she has demonstrated spiritual maturity and faithfulness.

Section 5.3 – The Philosophy of Discipleship

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission believes that salvation is the beginning of the Christian journey and not its conclusion.

The Mission therefore exists not only to win souls but also to make disciples who reflect the character of Christ.

Every believer shall be encouraged to grow continually in:

- Knowledge of the Scriptures.
 - Prayer and communion with God.
 - Holiness of life.
 - Love for God and neighbour.
 - Christian service.
 - Evangelism.
 - Faithfulness and spiritual maturity.

Section 5.4 – The Raising of Voices

One of the distinctive callings of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission is the discovery and development of God's servants.

The Mission believes that God has placed gifts, callings, and ministries within His people.

Therefore, every member shall be encouraged to discover, develop, and faithfully exercise his or her spiritual gifts under biblical guidance.

The Mission exists not merely to gather members but to raise faithful voices who will proclaim Jesus Christ throughout the world.

Section 5.5 – The Spiritual University Principle

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall function as a spiritual training community.

The Mission recognizes that many who come to Christ are like raw materials in the hands of a Master Builder.

Through the ministry of the Holy Spirit, the teaching of the Holy Scriptures, discipleship, correction, encouragement, and faithful service, believers shall be equipped for every good work.

The Mission therefore commits itself to transforming converts into disciples, disciples into servants, servants into leaders, and leaders into faithful caretakers of Christ's work.

Section 5.6 – Ministerial Development

The Mission shall establish structured programmes for the training of ministers, evangelists, pastors, teachers, elders, deacons, missionaries, youth leaders, children's workers, and other servants of Christ.

Training may include:

- Biblical studies.
- Leadership development.
- Evangelism.
- Missions.
- Christian counselling.
- Church administration.
- Stewardship.
- Practical ministry experience.

No office shall be regarded as beyond continual learning and spiritual growth.

Section 5.7 – Qualifications for Leadership Development

Candidates preparing for leadership shall demonstrate:

- Genuine salvation.
- Christian character.
- Love for God.
- Love for people.

- Teachability.
- Faithfulness in small responsibilities.
- Moral integrity.
- Sound doctrine.
- Commitment to prayer.
- Humility.

Character shall always be valued above talent, popularity, or natural ability.

Section 5.8 – Restoration and Growth

The Mission believes that Jesus Christ restores sincerely repentant believers.

Members who fall into sin shall receive biblical teaching, pastoral care, prayer, accountability, and opportunities for spiritual restoration.

Where necessary, temporary restrictions may be placed upon ministry responsibilities until evidence of spiritual maturity and restoration is demonstrated.

The Mission shall never lower God's standard, yet it shall never abandon those who sincerely seek His mercy.

Section 5.9 – Christian Fellowship

Members shall strive to preserve the unity of the Spirit through love, humility, forgiveness, patience, and mutual encouragement.

Every member is expected to contribute positively to the spiritual growth and peace of the Mission.

Division, gossip, false accusation, hatred, and persistent strife are contrary to the spirit of Christian fellowship and shall be addressed according to biblical principles.

Section 5.10 – Care for Members

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission recognizes its responsibility to care for the whole person.

As God provides, the Mission shall minister to the spiritual, emotional, educational, and practical needs of its members through:

- Prayer.
- Counselling.
- Benevolence.
- Discipleship.
- Family support.
- Youth development.
- Children's ministry.
- Compassion ministries.

The Mission shall especially remember widows, orphans, vulnerable persons, the sick, and those in genuine need.

Section 5.11 – School of Ministry

To preserve sound doctrine and prepare future generations of faithful servants, Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall establish a School of Ministry or similar training institutions as God provides.

The School of Ministry shall equip believers with biblical knowledge, spiritual discipline, practical ministry skills, leadership training, and missionary preparation.

Graduation from such programmes shall not replace God's calling but shall strengthen and prepare those whom God has called.

Section 5.12 – The Responsibility of Every Member

Every member shall:

- Love God wholeheartedly.
- Study the Holy Scriptures diligently.
- Maintain a consistent prayer life.
- Participate faithfully in fellowship.
- Support the work of the Mission.
- Live a life worthy of the Gospel.
- Share the message of Jesus Christ.
- Seek continual spiritual growth.
- Preserve the unity and testimony of the Mission.

Closing Declaration

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission exists not merely to increase membership but to make mature disciples of Jesus Christ who faithfully serve God in every generation.

The Mission believes that every sincere believer, when surrendered to Christ and taught the Word of God, can become a useful instrument in the hands of the Lord.

"Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

(2 Timothy 2:15 KJV)

ARTICLE VI

MINISTERS, ORDINATION, AND OFFICES OF THE MISSION

Section 6.1 – The Divine Call to Ministry

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission affirms that the call into Christian ministry originates from God alone.

No individual shall assume ministerial office merely because of personal ambition, popularity, academic achievement, family relationship, financial influence, or human appointment.

The Church recognizes and confirms God's call; it does not create it.

Every minister shall therefore labour with the understanding that he or she has first been called by God before being recognized by the Mission.

"And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron."

(Hebrews 5:4 KJV)

Section 6.2 – Purpose of Ministry

Every minister exists to glorify God by faithfully serving Jesus Christ and His Church.

The purpose of ministry shall include:

- Preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
- Teaching the Holy Scriptures.
- Making disciples.
- Shepherding God's people.
- Defending sound doctrine.
- Restoring the fallen.
- Equipping believers for Christian service.
- Advancing the Kingdom of God through evangelism and missions.

Ministry shall never be regarded as a means of personal enrichment, fame, or self-promotion.

Section 6.3 – Offices of the Mission

The Mission may recognize the following ministerial offices according to biblical qualifications and the needs of the work:

- Lead Evangelist.
- Regional Evangelists.
- Pastors.
- Teachers.
- Missionaries.
- Elders.
- Deacons and Deaconesses.
- Ministry Coordinators.
- Chaplains.
- Directors of approved ministries.
- Other offices as may be established in harmony with the Holy Scriptures and this Constitution.

Every office exists for service and not for personal honour.

Section 6.4 – The Lead Evangelist

The Lead Evangelist is the principal spiritual leader and caretaker of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission.

The Lead Evangelist shall:

- Preserve the vision of the Mission.
- Defend the Statement of Faith.
- Lead the Mission in prayer and evangelism.
- Encourage holiness and discipleship.
- Mentor future leaders.
- Promote unity within the Mission.
- Work together with the Board of Trustees and Leadership Council.
- Guard the Mission from false doctrine and practices contrary to Scripture.

The Lead Evangelist shall continually remember that the Mission belongs to Jesus Christ and not to himself.

Section 6.5 – Regional Evangelists

Regional Evangelists shall oversee evangelistic activities and missionary development within assigned regions.

They shall:

- Encourage church planting.
 - Strengthen local assemblies.
 - Mentor evangelists.
 - Promote biblical teaching.
 - Report faithfully to the Mission leadership.

Section 6.6 – Pastors

Pastors are entrusted with the spiritual care of local congregations.

Their responsibilities include:

- Preaching and teaching.
- Prayer and counselling.

- Shepherding believers.
- Encouraging holy living.
- Administering the ordinances.
- Protecting the flock from false doctrine.
- Developing future leaders.

Pastors shall serve as examples in speech, conduct, love, faith, and purity.

Section 6.7 – Teachers

Teachers shall faithfully explain and defend the Holy Scriptures.

They shall labour to establish believers in sound doctrine and encourage careful study of God's Word.

Every teacher shall avoid speculative teachings and remain faithful to the biblical text.

Section 6.8 – Elders

Elders shall assist in providing spiritual oversight, counsel, encouragement, and wisdom within the Mission.

They shall be recognized for spiritual maturity, godly character, and faithful service.

Section 6.9 – Deacons and Deaconesses

Deacons and Deaconesses shall assist in the practical ministries of the Mission.

Their responsibilities may include:

- Caring for members in need.
- Assisting during worship services.
- Supporting administrative duties.
- Encouraging unity and order.
- Serving with humility and faithfulness.

They shall be known for integrity, wisdom, and spiritual maturity.

Section 6.10 – Qualifications for Ministers

Every minister shall demonstrate:

- Genuine conversion.
- A clear testimony of God's call.
- Sound doctrine.
- Holiness of life.
- Humility.
- Faithfulness.
- Self-control.
- Love for God and people.
- A teachable spirit.
- Commitment to prayer.
- Good reputation within the Church.

No minister shall be appointed solely because of gifts while lacking godly character.

The Mission believes that character is the foundation upon which gifts are safely exercised.

Section 6.11 – Ordination

Ordination is the public recognition of God's calling upon a qualified servant.

Ordination shall be conducted prayerfully by the laying on of hands according to biblical practice.

Ordination does not make a person a minister; it publicly affirms the ministry that God has already established in that person's life.

Section 6.12 – Ministerial Conduct

Every minister shall conduct himself or herself in a manner worthy of the Gospel.

Ministers shall:

- Walk in holiness.
- Live above reproach.

- Avoid greed.
- Reject corruption.
- Speak truthfully.
- Protect the weak.
- Respect lawful authority.
- Preserve confidentiality where appropriate.
- Remain accountable.
- Continue growing in spiritual maturity.

Every minister shall remember that leadership is service and never domination.

Section 6.13 – Discipline of Ministers

A minister who violates biblical standards or the Constitution shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary measures.

Depending upon the seriousness of the offence, such measures may include:

- Admonition.
- Temporary suspension.
- Counselling.
- Spiritual retreat.
- Removal from ministerial responsibilities.
- Permanent removal from office where Scripture requires.

Every disciplinary process shall seek truth, justice, mercy, and restoration.

Section 6.14 – Restoration of Ministers

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission believes that sincere repentance should be met with sincere pastoral care.

A minister who has fallen into sin may be restored to Christian fellowship following genuine repentance, counselling, accountability, and evidence of spiritual change.

However, restoration to leadership shall not be automatic.

The Board of Trustees and Leadership Council shall prayerfully determine whether restoration to ministerial office is biblically appropriate, taking into consideration:

- The nature of the offence.
- The evidence of repentance.
- The minister's present character.
- The welfare of the Church.
- The honour of Christ.

Forgiveness belongs to God and His Church; restoration to leadership requires careful discernment.

Section 6.15 – Minister's Oath

Before assuming office, every minister shall publicly declare:

"I acknowledge Jesus Christ as the only Founder, Owner, Head, and Chief Shepherd of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission. I receive this office as a sacred stewardship entrusted to me by God. I pledge to uphold the Holy Scriptures, defend the purity of the Gospel, walk in holiness, serve God's people with humility, preserve the unity of the Mission, and faithfully fulfil my calling through the grace of God and the guidance of the Holy Spirit."

Closing Declaration

Every minister of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall remember that the greatest honour is not a title or office but faithfulness to Jesus Christ.

Ministry is a sacred trust. Those who lead must first serve, and those who teach must first obey.

"Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful."

(1 Corinthians 4:2 KJV)

ARTICLE VII

WORSHIP, ORDINANCES, EVANGELISM, MISSIONS, AND CHRISTIAN SERVICE

Section 7.1 – Purpose of Worship

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission exists first and foremost to worship Almighty God.

Every gathering of the Mission shall exalt God the Father, glorify the Lord Jesus Christ, and honour the ministry of the Holy Spirit according to the Holy Scriptures.

Worship shall be offered with reverence, sincerity, holiness, thanksgiving, and joyful obedience.

The Mission rejects every form of worship that seeks to entertain the flesh while neglecting the truth of God's Word.

"God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth."

(John 4:24 KJV)

Section 7.2 – The Centrality of the Word of God

The preaching and teaching of the Holy Scriptures shall remain the central ministry of every worship service.

Every sermon, lesson, exhortation, and public teaching shall faithfully proclaim the uncompromised and undiluted Word of God.

No human philosophy, tradition, motivational message, or cultural influence shall replace the faithful exposition of the Scriptures.

The Mission believes that lives are transformed through the power of God's Word.

Section 7.3 – Prayer

Prayer shall remain the foundation of every ministry, programme, decision, and activity of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission.

The Mission shall encourage:

- Personal prayer.
- Family prayer.
- Congregational prayer.
- Fasting.
- Intercession.
- Prayer for revival.
- Prayer for the salvation of souls.
- Prayer for leaders and nations.
- Prayer for missionaries and evangelistic work.

Every major decision of the Mission shall be preceded by prayer and dependence upon the Holy Spirit.

Section 7.4 – Evangelism

Evangelism is the primary assignment of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission.

Every member is called to be a witness for Jesus Christ through both words and godly conduct.

The Mission shall faithfully proclaim:

- Repentance from sin.
- Salvation through Jesus Christ alone.
- The forgiveness of sins.
- Holiness of life.
- Restoration of backsliders.
- Discipleship.
- The hope of eternal life.
- The Second Coming of Jesus Christ.

The Gospel shall be preached without compromise, fear, favour, discrimination, or commercial motive.

Section 7.5 – Missionary Work

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission recognizes the Great Commission as a continuing responsibility until the return of Christ.

The Mission shall therefore send, train, support, and encourage missionaries within Nigeria and throughout the nations of the world.

Missionary work may include:

- Church planting.
- Evangelistic crusades.
- Bible distribution.
- Leadership training.
- Christian education.
- Compassion ministries.
- Community development.
- Medical and humanitarian outreach.

Every missionary shall faithfully uphold the Statement of Faith and Constitution of the Mission.

Section 7.6 – Raising Voices for Christ

The Mission believes that God raises faithful voices in every generation.

Therefore, Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall continually discover, disciple, mentor, train, and release believers into their God-given ministries.

The Mission shall never measure success merely by the size of its congregations but by the number of faithful labourers it raises for Jesus Christ.

The Mission exists to prepare servants, not celebrities.

Section 7.7 – Water Baptism

Water Baptism is an ordinance instituted by our Lord Jesus Christ.

Every believer who has personally confessed faith in Jesus Christ shall be encouraged to receive water baptism as a public testimony of repentance and new life in Christ.

Baptism shall be administered reverently according to biblical practice.

Section 7.8 – The Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper shall be observed regularly in remembrance of the sacrifice of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Every participant shall prayerfully examine himself or herself before partaking.

The Lord's Supper proclaims Christ's death, celebrates His resurrection, and strengthens the believer's hope in His glorious return.

Section 7.9 – Christian Fellowship

The Mission encourages believers to gather faithfully for worship, prayer, Bible study, fellowship, encouragement, and mutual service.

Members shall maintain unity through humility, forgiveness, patience, and love.

The Mission rejects division, bitterness, and unnecessary strife among believers.

Section 7.10 – Compassion Ministry

Following the example of Jesus Christ, Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall minister not only to spiritual needs but also to genuine human needs.

As God provides, the Mission shall establish ministries for:

- Widows.
- Orphans.
- Vulnerable children.
- The sick.
- The elderly.
- Prisoners.
- Persons affected by disasters.
- Families in distress.
- The poor and needy.

The Mission believes that the Gospel should be proclaimed in both word and deed.

Section 7.11 – Christian Education

To strengthen future generations, the Mission shall promote biblical education.

As God provides, the Mission may establish:

- Bible Training Centres.
- Schools of Ministry.
- Christian primary and secondary schools.
- Technical and vocational training centres.
- Colleges and universities.
- Research and publishing institutions.

Education within the Mission shall seek to develop both spiritual maturity and practical excellence.

Section 7.12 – Publications and Media Ministry

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall use every lawful and biblical means to proclaim the Gospel.

The Mission may publish:

- Books.
- Bible study guides.
- Devotional materials.
- Journals.
- Magazines.
- Digital publications.
- Audio and video teachings.
- Online educational resources.

The Mission shall also use radio, television, websites, mobile applications, and social media to spread the Gospel while maintaining biblical integrity.

Section 7.13 – The Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission Library

The Mission shall establish and maintain an official library to preserve its history, doctrine, publications, sermons, constitutional documents, ministry manuals, and other educational resources.

The Library shall serve as a centre for biblical learning, historical preservation, theological research, and ministerial development.

Every official publication of the Mission shall be carefully preserved for the benefit of future generations.

Closing Declaration

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission exists to proclaim Jesus Christ to every people, every nation, every generation, and every language until He returns.

The Mission shall remain faithful to its calling by standing upon Christ the Rock and proclaiming His voice without compromise.

"Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature."

(Mark 16:15 KJV)

ARTICLE VIII

FINANCIAL STEWARDSHIP, PROPERTY, AND ASSET MANAGEMENT

Section 8.1 – The Ownership of All Resources

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission acknowledges that all things belong to Almighty God.

Every offering, tithe, donation, property, land, building, vehicle, publication, equipment, investment, and every other asset entrusted to the Mission shall be regarded as God's property, committed to the Mission as a sacred trust for the advancement of His Kingdom.

No individual shall claim personal ownership over any property belonging to the Mission.

"The earth is the LORD'S, and the fulness thereof."

(Psalm 24:1 KJV)

Section 8.2 – Principle of Financial Stewardship

The Mission believes that money is a servant of ministry and never its master.

Financial resources shall be managed with:

- Honesty.
- Faithfulness.
- Transparency.
- Accountability.
- Wisdom.
- Prayer.
- Integrity.

Every leader entrusted with financial responsibility shall remember that he or she is accountable first to God and then to the Mission.

Section 8.3 – Sources of Income

The Mission may receive financial support through lawful and biblical means, including:

- Tithes.
- Freewill offerings.
- Thanksgiving offerings.
- Mission offerings.
- Donations.
- Grants consistent with the Mission's biblical convictions.
- Income from approved Mission projects.
- Literature and educational materials.
- Other lawful means approved by the Board of Trustees.

The Mission shall never employ manipulation, fear, false promises, or commercial exploitation to obtain financial support.

Giving shall always be voluntary and cheerful.

Section 8.4 – Financial Planning

The Board of Trustees shall prepare or approve an annual financial budget for the Mission.

The budget shall reflect the Mission's vision and provide for:

- Evangelism.
- Missions.
- Church planting.
- Ministerial support.
- Compassion ministries.
- Christian education.
- Property maintenance.
- Administrative needs.
- Emergency reserves.
- Future development.

Every budget shall be prayerfully considered before approval.

Section 8.5 – Financial Authorization

No major expenditure shall be made without proper authorization.

The Mission shall establish a separate Financial Policy Manual detailing approval procedures, authorization limits, documentation requirements, and internal financial controls.

These procedures may be revised from time to time without requiring an amendment to this Constitution, provided they remain consistent with biblical stewardship and this Constitution.

Section 8.6 – Ministerial Support

The Mission recognizes that those who labour faithfully in preaching and teaching may receive material support from the Mission according to its financial ability.

Upon appointment, ministers shall indicate whether they choose to serve:

- As volunteer ministers; or
- As full-time ministers.

Volunteer ministers shall ordinarily receive reimbursement or honoraria where appropriate.

Full-time ministers may receive salaries and approved allowances according to:

- Their responsibilities.
- The financial ability of the Mission.
- Policies approved by the Board of Trustees.

Such support may include:

- Housing.
- Transportation.
- Feeding.
- Clothing.
- Medical assistance.
- Other approved benefits.

No minister shall demand financial support beyond the Mission's ability.

Section 8.7 – Financial Records

Accurate financial records shall be maintained for every income and expenditure of the Mission.

Appropriate accounting systems shall be used to ensure proper stewardship.

Financial documents shall be preserved according to applicable laws and Mission policy.

Section 8.8 – Financial Accountability

The Mission shall maintain a culture of financial transparency.

Public funds raised for specific projects shall be accounted for openly.

The Board of Trustees shall ensure that financial reports are periodically reviewed.

Independent financial audits may be conducted whenever considered necessary or appropriate.

Every officer entrusted with financial responsibilities shall cooperate fully with financial reviews.

Section 8.9 – Banking

All Mission funds shall be kept in officially approved bank accounts.

Mission accounts shall operate under financial procedures approved by the Board of Trustees.

No individual shall maintain unofficial accounts in the name of the Mission.

Mission funds shall never be mixed with personal funds.

Section 8.10 – Emergency Funds

The Mission shall maintain an emergency reserve whenever financially possible.

Emergency funds may be used only where immediate action is necessary to protect life, ministry, property, or other urgent needs.

Every emergency expenditure shall be properly documented and reported to the Board of Trustees as soon as practicable.

Section 8.11 – Borrowing

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission believes in trusting God as its Provider.

The Mission shall avoid unnecessary borrowing.

Loans or financial obligations shall only be considered where:

- Prayer has been offered.
- The Board of Trustees has carefully evaluated the matter.
- The proposed borrowing will not endanger the Mission's future.
- The borrowing serves a clear Kingdom purpose.

The Mission shall never borrow recklessly or contrary to biblical wisdom.

Section 8.12 – Conflict of Interest

Every trustee, minister, employee, volunteer, and officer shall avoid using Mission resources for personal gain.

Where a conflict of interest exists, the individual concerned shall disclose it immediately and withdraw from the relevant decision-making process.

Integrity shall always take precedence over personal advantage.

Section 8.13 – Protection of Mission Property

Every property entrusted to Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall be used solely for purposes consistent with the Mission's vision.

Mission property shall not be sold, transferred, leased, or otherwise disposed of except in accordance with this Constitution and applicable policies approved by the Board of Trustees.

Leaders shall carefully preserve all Mission assets for future generations.

Section 8.14 – Dissolution of Assets

Should Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission ever be lawfully dissolved, all remaining assets, after the settlement of lawful obligations, shall be transferred to one or more evangelical Christian organizations whose doctrine and purposes are substantially consistent with this Constitution.

No trustee, minister, member, or officer shall personally benefit from the distribution of Mission assets.

Section 8.15 – Financial Covenant

Every person entrusted with the stewardship of Mission finances shall affirm:

"I acknowledge that every resource entrusted to Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission belongs to God. I shall manage these resources faithfully, honestly, transparently, and prayerfully, seeking neither personal gain nor human glory, but the advancement of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ."

Closing Declaration

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission believes that faithful stewardship is an act of worship.

Financial prosperity shall never become the measure of spiritual success.

Rather, the Mission shall seek first the Kingdom of God, trusting Him to provide every resource necessary for the fulfilment of His divine purpose.

"Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful."

(1 Corinthians 4:2 KJV)

ARTICLE IX

DISCIPLINE, RESTORATION, AND CHRISTIAN CONDUCT

Section 9.1 – Purpose of Discipline

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission believes that biblical discipline is an expression of God's holiness, justice, mercy, and love.

The purpose of discipline is never revenge, humiliation, or condemnation, but:

- To honour God.
- To preserve the purity of the Church.
- To protect the flock.
- To restore the repentant.
- To prevent the spread of sin.
- To strengthen Christian character.

Every disciplinary action shall be carried out prayerfully, fairly, and according to the Holy Scriptures.

"For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth."

(Hebrews 12:6 KJV)

Section 9.2 – Christian Conduct

Every member, worker, and minister shall strive to live a life worthy of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Members shall demonstrate:

- Holiness.
- Truthfulness.
- Humility.
- Love.
- Purity.
- Integrity.
- Self-control.
- Forgiveness.
- Faithfulness.
- Respect for others.

Every believer shall seek to be an example in word and in conduct.

Section 9.3 – Conduct Unbecoming of a Christian

The Mission recognizes that certain behaviours bring reproach upon the name of Christ and shall require pastoral correction and, where necessary, formal discipline.

Such conduct includes, but is not limited to:

- Persistent immoral living.
- Sexual misconduct.
- Adultery or fornication.
- Fraud and dishonesty.
- Theft.
- Drunkenness and substance abuse.

- Violence.
- False teaching.
- Deliberate division within the Church.
- Abuse of authority.
- Misuse of Mission property or finances.
- Persistent refusal to obey biblical correction.

Each case shall be considered individually, prayerfully, and according to Scripture.

Section 9.4 – Protection of Children and Vulnerable Persons

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission is committed to protecting children and vulnerable persons physically, emotionally, and spiritually.

Every child shall be taught the Holy Scriptures with love and patience while being safeguarded from every form of abuse, neglect, exploitation, or harm.

Any allegation involving abuse of a child or vulnerable person shall be treated as a matter of utmost seriousness.

A thorough investigation shall be conducted, and the accused shall be immediately removed from any position involving children or vulnerable persons pending the outcome.

Where guilt is established, appropriate disciplinary action shall be taken, and the Mission shall cooperate with lawful civil authorities where required by law.

The Mission shall always place the safety and well-being of children above the reputation of any individual.

Section 9.5 – The Process of Discipline

Biblical discipline shall ordinarily follow these principles:

1. Private correction.
2. Pastoral counselling.
3. Prayer and spiritual guidance.
4. Formal warning where necessary.
5. Temporary restriction from certain responsibilities.
6. Suspension where appropriate.
7. Removal from office where required.
8. Restoration upon genuine repentance where biblically appropriate.

Every effort shall be made to restore the repentant while preserving the holiness of the Church.

Section 9.6 – Restoration

The Mission believes that Jesus Christ restores those who genuinely repent.

Members who fall into sin shall be encouraged toward repentance through:

- Prayer.
- Biblical teaching.
- Counselling.
- Accountability.
- Spiritual mentoring.

Restoration to Christian fellowship shall be welcomed where genuine repentance is evident.

However, restoration to leadership shall not be automatic and shall require careful spiritual discernment by the appropriate leadership.

Section 9.7 – Disqualification from Leadership

A leader who falls into serious sin shall immediately refrain from exercising ministerial authority while the matter is prayerfully examined.

The Board of Trustees and Leadership Council shall determine appropriate measures according to Scripture and this Constitution.

Where restoration is possible, it shall proceed carefully and gradually.

Where continued leadership would endanger the Mission or dishonour Christ, the individual shall not continue in leadership, even if restored to fellowship.

Section 9.8 – Sins That Threaten the Foundation of the Mission

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission recognizes that some actions directly attack the foundation of the Christian faith.

Such actions include:

- Deliberately leading believers away from Jesus Christ.
- Promoting the worship of other gods.
- Persistently teaching doctrines that deny the Gospel of Christ.
- Wilfully seeking to destroy the unity of the Church through rebellion against biblical truth.
- Knowingly opposing and rejecting the revealed work of God after having fully understood and embraced it.

Such matters shall receive the most careful spiritual examination and be addressed with both firmness and humility.

Section 9.9 – Repentance

True repentance is demonstrated not merely by words but by a changed life.

Evidence of repentance may include:

- Genuine confession.
- Godly sorrow.
- Turning away from sin.
- A willingness to accept correction.
- Faithful obedience.
- Renewed spiritual growth.
- A restored desire to please God.

The Mission shall patiently encourage those sincerely pursuing repentance.

Section 9.10 – Forgiveness

The Mission shall always extend forgiveness to those who genuinely repent, following the example of Jesus Christ.

Forgiveness removes personal resentment but does not necessarily remove every consequence of sin or automatically restore leadership responsibilities.

The welfare of Christ's Church and the honour of the Gospel shall remain paramount.

Section 9.11 – Unity of the Church

Every member shall labour to preserve the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

Gossip, slander, malicious accusations, unnecessary disputes, and deliberate attempts to divide the Church shall be corrected according to biblical principles.

Unity shall never be purchased at the expense of truth, nor truth expressed without love.

Section 9.12 – Final Appeal

Every disciplinary process shall conclude with an appeal to God's mercy, justice, and wisdom.

The Mission shall remember that every believer depends entirely upon the grace of God.

Accordingly, correction shall always be administered with humility, remembering the words of Scripture:

"Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted."

(Galatians 6:1 KJV)

Closing Declaration

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall faithfully uphold both the holiness and the mercy of God.

The Mission shall neither tolerate persistent sin nor abandon those whom Christ desires to restore.

In every matter, the glory of God, the purity of His Church, and the salvation of souls shall remain the highest priorities.

"Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity."

(2 Timothy 2:19 KJV)

ARTICLE X

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Section 10.1 – Establishment

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall maintain a Board of Trustees in accordance with the Holy Scriptures, this Constitution, and the applicable laws governing the registration of the Mission.

The Board of Trustees shall serve as faithful custodians of the Mission's legal, financial, and administrative responsibilities while recognizing that Jesus Christ alone remains the Founder, Owner, and Head of the Mission.

Section 10.2 – Spiritual Character

Membership of the Board of Trustees shall not be regarded merely as a legal office but as a sacred ministry of stewardship.

Every Trustee shall be:

- A mature believer in Jesus Christ.
- Sound in doctrine.
- Faithful in Christian service.
- Honest and trustworthy.
- Spiritually discerning.
- Humble.
- Prayerful.
- Committed to the Vision of the Mission.
- Of good reputation both inside and outside the Church.

The Mission shall prefer spiritual maturity above professional qualifications alone.

Section 10.3 – Qualifications

A person may be appointed as a Trustee only if he or she:

- Is a committed member of the Mission.
 - Accepts the Statement of Faith.
 - Lives a life consistent with Christian holiness.
 - Demonstrates financial integrity.
 - Is free from criminal conduct that would bring reproach upon Christ.
 - Supports the Mission's vision without selfish ambition.
 - Is willing to serve as a caretaker and not as an owner.

Section 10.4 – Duties of the Board

The Board of Trustees shall:

- Protect the legal identity of the Mission.
- Hold Mission property in trust.
- Safeguard the Constitution.
- Approve major financial decisions.
- Ensure proper stewardship of Mission assets.
- Protect the Mission from unlawful activities.
- Promote accountability.
- Support the Lead Evangelist in fulfilling the Mission's vision.
- Preserve the Mission for future generations.

The Board shall never interfere with the preaching of sound doctrine except where Scripture requires correction.

Section 10.5 – Relationship with the Lead Evangelist

The Board of Trustees and the Lead Evangelist shall work together in mutual respect, humility, and prayer.

Neither shall seek dominance over the other.

The Lead Evangelist shall provide spiritual leadership.

The Board shall provide legal, financial, and constitutional oversight.

Both shall recognize Jesus Christ as the Supreme Head of the Mission.

Section 10.6 – Meetings

The Board shall meet regularly to review:

- Spiritual progress.
- Financial stewardship.
- Legal matters.
- Property management.
- Mission expansion.
- Ministerial welfare.
- Constitutional compliance.
- Other matters affecting the Mission.

Emergency meetings may be convened whenever necessary.

Every meeting shall begin and end with prayer.

Section 10.7 – Decision Making

The Board shall seek unity through prayer and biblical wisdom.

Where consensus cannot immediately be reached, members shall continue seeking God's direction rather than allowing personal ambition to prevail.

Voting may be used where necessary, but spiritual discernment shall always take precedence over mere numerical majority.

Section 10.8 – Confidentiality

Trustees shall faithfully preserve confidential matters entrusted to them.

Information discussed in confidence shall not be disclosed except where:

- Required by law.
- Necessary to protect the Mission.
- Required for biblical discipline.
- Authorized by the Board.

Confidentiality shall never be used to conceal corruption or sin.

Section 10.9 – Conflict of Interest

A Trustee shall not use his or her office for personal advantage.

Where personal interest exists in any matter before the Board, the Trustee shall disclose the conflict and refrain from participating in that decision.

The integrity of Christ's Church shall always come before personal benefit.

Section 10.10 – Removal of a Trustee

A Trustee may be suspended or removed where he or she:

- Rejects the Statement of Faith.
- Lives in persistent unrepentant sin.
- Commits fraud or financial misconduct.
- Abuses authority.
- Creates deliberate division within the Mission.
- Becomes legally disqualified.
- Is unable to fulfil the responsibilities of the office.

Such action shall be taken only after prayer, careful investigation, and adherence to biblical principles of fairness and justice.

Section 10.11 – Vacancy

Where a vacancy occurs on the Board of Trustees through death, resignation, removal, incapacity, or any other lawful cause, the remaining Trustees shall prayerfully recommend a qualified replacement in accordance with this Constitution and applicable law.

The appointment shall seek the will of God above every personal preference.

Section 10.12 – Stewardship Oath

Before assuming office, every Trustee shall declare:

"I acknowledge Jesus Christ as the Founder, Owner, Builder, and Head of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission. I accept this office as a sacred stewardship. I shall faithfully protect the Mission, uphold this Constitution, preserve its biblical doctrine, manage its resources with honesty, and seek God's glory above personal interest."

Section 10.13 – Protection of the Vision

The Board of Trustees shall regard the original Vision entrusted by God to Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission as a sacred trust.

No Trustee shall knowingly support any policy, doctrine, or practice that alters the Mission's biblical foundation or diverts it from its divine purpose.

Each generation of Trustees shall faithfully preserve and transmit the Vision to the generations that follow.

Closing Declaration

The Board of Trustees exists not to govern in place of Christ, but to serve under His authority.

Every Trustee shall remember that one day he or she shall stand before the Chief Shepherd to give account of this sacred stewardship.

"Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful."

(1 Corinthians 4:2 KJV)

ARTICLE XI

LOCAL CHURCHES, REGIONS, AND MISSION EXPANSION

Section 11.1 – Purpose of Expansion

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission exists to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ to every community, nation, and generation.

The establishment of Local Churches, Mission Stations, Regional Offices, and International Branches shall always be for the advancement of the Kingdom of God and the fulfilment of the Great Commission.

Mission expansion shall never be motivated by personal ambition, competition, or numerical pride, but by love for Christ and compassion for lost souls.

"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations..."

(Matthew 28:19–20 KJV)

Section 11.2 – Establishment of Local Churches

The Mission may establish Local Churches wherever God opens the door and where faithful leadership is available.

Every Local Church shall:

- Uphold the Statement of Faith.
- Observe this Constitution.
- Submit to the spiritual oversight of the Mission.
- Preserve the unity of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission.
- Maintain sound biblical doctrine.

No Local Church shall establish doctrines contrary to the Mission's constitutional beliefs.

Section 11.3 – Mission Stations

Mission Stations may be established in communities where the Gospel has not yet been firmly planted or where further evangelistic work is required.

Mission Stations shall function under the direct supervision of the Mission until they are spiritually and administratively mature enough to become Local Churches.

Section 11.4 – Regional Administration

For effective administration, the Mission may organize its work into Regions, Zones, Districts, or other administrative divisions as the need arises.

Each Region shall be supervised by a qualified Regional Evangelist or other officer appointed by the Mission.

Regional leaders shall:

- Encourage evangelism.
 - Strengthen Local Churches.
 - Promote unity.
 - Mentor ministers.
 - Ensure doctrinal faithfulness.
 - Submit regular reports to the national leadership.

Section 11.5 – Church Planting

Church planting shall remain one of the principal ministries of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission.

Every new assembly shall be established upon:

- Prayer.
- Evangelism.
- Biblical teaching.
- Discipleship.
- Holiness.
- Financial integrity.
- Good leadership.

The Mission shall seek healthy churches rather than merely numerous churches.

Section 11.6 – Appointment of Local Leaders

Pastors, Evangelists, Elders, Deacons, and other leaders serving Local Churches shall be appointed according to biblical qualifications and this Constitution.

Appointments shall consider:

- Spiritual maturity.
- Christian character.
- Sound doctrine.
- Faithfulness.
- Humility.
- Leadership ability.
- Evidence of God's calling.

Appointments shall never be based solely upon wealth, family relationship, ethnicity, popularity, or personal influence.

Section 11.7 – Responsibilities of Local Churches

Every Local Church shall faithfully:

- Preach the Gospel.
- Teach the Holy Scriptures.
- Make disciples.
- Conduct regular worship services.
- Observe Water Baptism and the Lord's Supper.
- Care for members.
- Support evangelism and missions.
- Encourage Christian education.
- Promote unity and holiness.
- Maintain proper financial records.

Every Local Church shall actively support the overall Mission and Vision of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission.

Section 11.8 – Relationship Between Local Churches and the National Mission

Each Local Church remains an integral part of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission.

No Local Church shall operate independently in a manner that contradicts the Mission's Constitution or Statement of Faith.

Local Churches shall cooperate with the national leadership while faithfully serving their local communities.

Section 11.9 – International Expansion

As God provides opportunities, Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission may establish ministries and churches in other nations.

Every international work shall remain faithful to:

- The Holy Scriptures.
- The Statement of Faith.
- The Vision of the Mission.
- This Constitution.

Reasonable administrative adaptations may be made to comply with local laws provided they do not compromise biblical truth.

Section 11.10 – Institutions of the Mission

As the Mission grows, it may establish institutions that support its vision, including:

- Schools.
- Bible Colleges.
- Schools of Ministry.
- Technical and Vocational Training Centres.
- Hospitals and Medical Missions.
- Children's Homes.
- Publishing Houses.
- Media Centres.
- Research Institutes.

- Relief and Humanitarian Agencies.

Every institution shall exist to glorify God and serve humanity according to biblical principles.

Section 11.11 – Mission Property

Every property acquired by Local Churches or Mission institutions in the name of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall remain the property of the Mission.

No individual minister, pastor, trustee, or member shall claim personal ownership of Mission property.

Property shall be administered according to this Constitution and applicable laws.

Section 11.12 – Unity of the Mission

The Mission recognizes that geographical expansion must never destroy spiritual unity.

Every church, region, institution, and ministry shall labour together in love, mutual respect, and shared commitment to Christ.

Differences in culture or administration shall never compromise the unity of faith or the authority of the Holy Scriptures.

Section 11.13 – The Future Vision

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission looks forward with faith to the day when, by the grace of God, it shall establish churches, schools, hospitals, training centres, publications, media ministries, and missionary works that proclaim Christ and transform lives.

Every generation shall receive this vision as a sacred trust and faithfully advance it under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Closing Declaration

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall never measure success merely by the number of churches established, but by the faithfulness of those churches to Jesus Christ and His Word.

May every assembly stand upon the Rock, proclaim His voice without compromise, and faithfully prepare people for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

"Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it."

(Psalm 127:1 KJV)

ARTICLE XII

AMENDMENTS, INTERPRETATION, TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS, AND FINAL DECLARATION

Section 12.1 – Permanence of the Mission

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission is founded upon the eternal Lordship of Jesus Christ and the authority of the Holy Scriptures.

While administrative procedures may develop as the Mission grows, its biblical foundation shall remain unchanged.

The Mission therefore affirms that its identity is permanent because its Foundation is Jesus Christ.

"Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever."

(Hebrews 13:8 KJV)

Section 12.2 – Constitutional Amendments

This Constitution may be amended when genuine need arises to improve the administration and effectiveness of the Mission.

Every proposed amendment shall:

- Be consistent with the Holy Scriptures.
- Preserve the Vision of the Mission.
- Protect the Statement of Faith.
- Honour the Lordship of Jesus Christ.
- Promote the unity and growth of the Mission.

No amendment shall be adopted merely because of cultural pressure, political influence, financial advantage, or personal ambition.

Section 12.3 – Matters That Shall Never Be Amended

The following foundational truths are permanent and shall never be altered:

1. Jesus Christ is the Founder, Owner, Builder, and Head of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission.
2. The Holy Scriptures are the supreme authority of the Mission.
3. Salvation is through Jesus Christ alone.
4. The Mission shall proclaim the uncompromised and undiluted Word of God.
5. Leadership is stewardship and never ownership.
6. Holiness remains God's standard for His people.
7. The Mission exists to glorify God and prepare people for the Kingdom of Christ.

No amendment shall contradict these eternal principles.

Section 12.4 – Interpretation of the Constitution

Questions concerning the interpretation of this Constitution shall first be considered in the light of the Holy Scriptures.

Where clarification is still required, the matter shall be prayerfully considered by the Board of Trustees together with the Leadership Council.

In every interpretation, the following order of authority shall apply:

1. The Holy Bible.
2. This Constitution.
3. Approved Mission Policies and Manuals.

No interpretation shall contradict the Holy Scriptures.

Section 12.5 – Ministry Policy Manuals

The Mission may adopt separate manuals to provide detailed procedures for administration without requiring constitutional amendment.

Such manuals may include:

- Financial Policy Manual.
- Human Resources Policy.
- Ministerial Handbook.
- Child Protection Policy.
- Worship and Liturgy Manual.
- Missions Manual.
- Church Administration Manual.
- School of Ministry Regulations.
- Disciplinary Procedures Manual.
- Official Ceremonies and Protocol Manual.

All such manuals shall remain subject to this Constitution.

Section 12.6 – Transitional Arrangements

Where this Constitution introduces new structures or procedures, the Board of Trustees shall oversee their orderly implementation.

Existing offices, ministries, and programmes shall be harmonized with this Constitution as practical and prayerfully appropriate.

Every transition shall preserve peace, unity, and the Mission's biblical identity.

Section 12.7 – Preservation of Mission Records

Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission shall carefully preserve:

- Its Constitution.
- The Founding Vision.
- Official Seals.
- Minutes of major meetings.
- Financial records.
- Ordination records.
- Membership registers.
- Historical documents.
- Official publications.
- Digital archives.

These records shall be maintained as part of the permanent heritage of the Mission for future generations.

Section 12.8 – Official Language and Publications

The official language of the Mission shall be English, while translations into other languages may be produced for evangelism, discipleship, and ministry purposes.

Every official publication shall faithfully represent the doctrines and vision of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission.

No publication shall intentionally contradict the Statement of Faith or this Constitution.

Section 12.9 – Constitutional Oath

Every Trustee, Minister, Officer, and recognized Leader shall affirm:

"I solemnly acknowledge Jesus Christ as the Founder, Owner, Builder, and Head of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission. I accept this Constitution as the governing document of the Mission under the authority of the Holy Scriptures. I pledge to uphold its doctrine, preserve its vision, protect its unity, exercise faithful stewardship, and serve God with humility, integrity, and love for as long as He entrusts me with this responsibility."

Section 12.10 – The Founding Charge

To every generation that shall inherit Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission:

Never forget that this Mission belongs to Jesus Christ.

Guard the Gospel.

Protect the purity of His Word.

Love His people.

Raise faithful voices.

Restore the fallen.

Train labourers.

Remain humble.

Depend upon the Holy Spirit.

Stand upon the Rock.

Proclaim His Voice.

Until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Final Declaration

We, the members and leaders of Voice on the Rock Evangelical Mission, recognizing the sovereign Lordship of Jesus Christ and relying upon the guidance of the Holy Spirit, do hereby adopt this Constitution as the official governing document of the Mission.

We dedicate this Mission wholly to the service of God, committing ourselves and future generations to proclaim the uncompromised and undiluted Word of God, to make disciples of all nations, to uphold holiness, to preserve sound doctrine, and to faithfully prepare people for the glorious return of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

May every generation remain faithful to this sacred trust, standing upon Christ the Eternal Rock, proclaiming His voice without fear, favour, or compromise.

"Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen."

Jude 24–25 (KJV)

END OF THE CONSTITUTION
